NUCCC 1990

by Johan Andersson

TIME again for the annual conference of the Nordic University Computer Clubs. This time we expect you all, together with a wonderful weather, in Gothenburg in the middle of June. As you might know the annual NUCC conference is an opportunity for computer enthusiasts in the Nordic countries to get together to share ideas, establish new contacts, engage in interesting discussions, listen to exiting presentations and have fun!

Some events from the preliminary program are presented below.

Friday, 15 June

We expect you to arrive after lunch (12.00) but not later than 17.30. There will be an interesting little competitive computer game for the early arriving ending at 17.30. When everybody has arrived we will be transported to the Chalmers Summerhouse which is some kilometers outside Gothenburg. There we will have the tradition pending, first NUCC gasque. The Chalmers Summerhouse is located by a little lake and we will also have access to one of Sweden's biggest wooden fired Saunas. We will be lodged in the Summerhouse overnight, have breakfast in the morning and be transported back to Chalmers by bus.

Saturday, 16 June

When we arrive back at Chalmers around 10.30, there will be two talks on some interesting subjects, one before and one after lunch. We are currently working on the details of these, but you can trust us, they will be interesting and entertaining.

After this training of the mind it is time for some workout. This will take the form of the ruthless and highly prestigious NUCC indoors hockey tournament. All participating computer clubs are recommended to train hard for this, useless as it might be, as CD will naturally win :-)

When everybody is cleaned up, we will hold the NUCC dinner at the Chalmers Nightclub, known as the Sommarklubben. When dinner is over you are free to roam the dancefloor of the Sommarklubben or go somewhere else in Gothenburg, maybe a visit to the entertainment park of Liseberg?

We will be lodged close to Chalmers and details will be given later.

Sunday, 17 June

Breakfast will be served at the lodging, after which we will be transported to the city for some sightseeing. Details of this will be given later. After the sightseeing we will hold a closing meeting at Chalmers and wish all well until the NUCCC next year.
